

CELEBRATE YOUR WAY

Make a toast, showcase your talent or host an unforgettable festive celebration at The Perception, a stunning multifaceted stage for unmistakable occasions. Explore our bold new spaces, indulge in lip-smacking festive bites and raise a glass to celebrating in style.

W Lounge

The W Lounge is all about flexibility. Semi-secluded from the rest of the bar, it can be reconfigured, connected to the screening room or fully separated. The W lounge is the perfect hangout for standing cocktail receptions, networking events and provides a dramatic setting for festive dinners and lunches. The atmosphere is created by a dark wooden floor and petrol leather booths arranged alongside the window whilst a large reading table – embellished with British pennies – can be arranged in different set ups and forms the centre of the design.

Playback

In this semi-private booth you and your colleagues or friends are the DJ for one night; equipped with turntables and an immaculate music collection of vinyl records this area is the perfect party starter. Curved sofas and a circular light track close off the booth from the wider lounge giving an intimate atmosphere centred around the feature fire pit. With wireless headphones you can chill on the large statement couch or dance the night away...in your own music world! The perfect space for smaller office groups, festive celebrations and drinks.

On The Rocks

The beating centrepiece of The Perception, where the classic English pub meets high-end cocktail bar. Two floor levels around the bar combine the comfortable lounge seating of the raised podium with the bar seating of the lower area where the party gets started. The mix of marble table tops and dark herringbone floors give the area a luxurious feel and provide the perfect backdrop for our showman mixologists to take the stage.

DJ Booth

Inspired by the British punk era, the DJ booth has a look of its own with black leather and metallic studs forming the basis of the design. An exclusive VIP area behind the DJ can be used for the obvious party purposes but doesn't lose its value during daytime. By covering the music equipment, the space is easily transformed into a lounge area. To finish things off, spherical light sculptures hang from the ceiling creating the ultimate party vibe and make the DJ booth the centre stage of the bar.

Colour Me Bad

Release your inner rebel and be your own revolution. Here, a leather sofa covered in bespoke tattoo print by Soho institution Frith Street Tattoo generates the elegant, yet edgy environment that is amplified by the spherical mirror ceiling above it. At the back (but definitely not in the background) an abstracted neon Union-Jack artwork lights up the panoramic window. Its colourful light has a filter-like effect on the glass, rose-tinting the view towards Leicester Square.

Pillow Talk

Lay down, get comfy and lose yourself on the day beds' ocean of fluffy pillows. This booth is all about the large oval day bed surrounded by small poufs. Rich materials in pastel colours result in an elegant look whilst the 'flying' light bulbs hanging from the ceiling are something from a childhood dream.

Revolve

Take centre stage with the ultimate festive setting, staged underneath the iconic giant glitterball. With a view over Leicester Square, this VIP area literally revolves around glamour, whilst the giant disco ball and animated light ceiling above it casts shimmering light for all to see. Designed to rotate, the stepped seating can face outwards providing front-row seats for red carpet movie premieres, or inwards. When the focus is drawn to what's happening within the lounge it offers the ideal stage for live performances and bands. Finally, the hidden bar opens its floor-to-ceiling doors to reveal a golden interior. Revolve can be fully separated from the rest of the bar thanks to a set of partition walls.

Studios

Located on the second floor above the bar, the studios are the perfect snug setting for seated festive dinners. With ambient lighting as extra and bold touches, the space provides a quiet escape above the main lounge. An internal balcony lends itself to welcome drinks whilst the dazzling spaces of The Perception below provide the perfect excuse to continue the party after.

Sips and snacks

For the ultimate gastronomic experience, our range of festive bites and cocktails provide the perfect party pairings for your event. We cater for all dietary and group requirements, from nibbles to bowl food. Fuel your festive celebration party with our colourful, lip-smacking menus.
