The story behind ...Colour Me Bad

Soho has a long history of tattooing and has been at the forefront of music and fashion throughout the last century.

To design the three bold and colourful "Colour Me Bad" sofas taking stage in the middle of the bar, we collaborated with one of London's most regarded and popular tattoo studio, Frith Street Studio.

For The Perception, artists Oliver Macintosh, Jordan Baxter, Bradley Tompkins, and Jordan Teear each painted a sheet of playful bespoke designs that reference London's rich tattooing history from George Burchett who tattooed royalty, to the punk designs of the 70s and classic designs still popular today.

Frith Street first opened its doors in 2004, fast becoming one of London's premier tattoo shops offering high quality tattooing and excellent customer service. Slap bang in the heart of Soho, Frith Street offer custom work from a range of artists who are top of their fields in their respective styles: Emiliano Liberatori, Stefano C, Jordan Teear, Oliver, Miles, Jordan Baxter, Bradley Tompkins and EJ Miles.
